...

Mr.A.S. Gadkari, for the Respondents.

...

CORAM : A.M.KHANWILKAR,J.

16th March 2005

P.C.:

. This petition takes exception to the externment order passed on 7th September 1993 by the competent authority against the Petitioner. The Petitioner has suffered externment period partly. This Court, while entertaining the present petition, granted interim relief on 5th April 1994. Due to efflux of time, the purpose for which the externment order was issued must have come to an end.

2. Hence, this petition is disposed of with direction that the remaining period of externment shall not be enforced against the Petitioner. All other questions are left open. This course is adopted in view of the judgment of the Apex Court in the case of Baby Naaz v. Union of India, reported in 1990 (Supp) S.C.C., 163 (II).

3. Ordered accordingly.

CORAM : A.M.KHANWILKAR,J.

16th March 2005

P.C.:

. This petition takes exception to the externment order passed on 16th July 1999 by the competent authority against the Petitioner. The Petitioner has suffered externment period partly. This Court, while entertaining the present petition, granted interim relief on 27th September 2000. Due to efflux of time, the purpose for which the externment order was issued must have come to an end.

2. Hence, this petition is disposed of with direction that the remaining period of externment shall not be enforced against the Petitioner. All other questions are left open. This course is adopted in view of the judgment of the Apex Court in the case of Baby Naaz v. Union of India, reported in 1990 (Supp) S.C.C., 163 (II).

3. Ordered accordingly.

This Court, while entertaining the present petition, granted interim relief on 13th September 2002. Due to efflux of time, the purpose for which the externment order was issued must have come to an end.

2. Hence, this petition is disposed of with direction that the remaining period of externment shall not be enforced against the Petitioner. All other questions are left open. This course is adopted in view of the judgment of the Apex Court in the case of Baby Naaz v. Union of India, reported in 1990 (Supp) S.C.C., 163 (II).

3. Ordered accordingly.

CORAM : A.M.KHANWILKAR,J.

4th April 2005

P.C.:

. This petition takes exception to the externment order passed on 26th February 2003 by the competent authority against the Petitioner. The Petitioner has suffered externment period partly. This Court, while entertaining the present petition, granted interim relief on 17th June 2003, which was continued subsequently. Due to efflux of time, the purpose for which the externment order was issued must have come to an end.

2. Hence, this petition is disposed of with direction that the remaining period of externment shall not be enforced against the Petitioner. All other questions are left open. This course is adopted in view of the judgment of the Apex Court in the case of Baby Naaz v. Union of India, reported in 1990 (Supp) S.C.C., 163 (II).

3. Ordered accordingly.
